Minutes
Faculty Senate Student Rights and Responsibilities Committee
Monday, September 12, 2022, 1:00 p.m.

Committee Chair Kim Floyd brought the monthly meeting to order at 1:00 p.m. Members participated via teleconference.

Members present:
Floyd, K.
Komisaruk, A.
Hauser, D.
Jordan, E.
DeMarco, F.
Kerr, P.
Ameri, S.
Codrea, V.
Hines, S.

1. No minutes from the prior year were available to approve.

2. Chair Floyd reported on the following:
   – Introduction of herself and by each committee member
   – The Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities has moved away from a board approach to testimonies, instead using a single adjudicator format
   – Carrie Showalter, Executive Director of Campus and Community Life, is excited to collaborate with the committee, though noted that the single adjudicator system is not likely to change
     o The system has moved toward a restorative justice approach as opposed to punitive
   – A means of surveying faculty will be created, likely in a smaller group format

3. Chair Floyd provided an overview of committee responsibilities and charge:
   a. Responsibilities
      i. Code of Student Conduct
      ii. Academic Integrity Policies
      iii. Board of Governor's Rule 1.6 and Title IX Policies
   b. Student Rights and Responsibilities Committee Charge
   c. Solicited ideas on training regarding student code of conduct, Title IX, BOG 1.6, and academic integrity
   d. Institution is seeking volunteers to serve as faculty mentors for Title IX and 1.6 cases
   e. Noted that faculty have never been contacted in related to Student Code of Conduct changes or amendments

4. Director of Student Conduct Jill Gibson was not available to report

5. New business
• There has been discussion about designating a “student ombudsperson” to handle issues that do not rise to the charge of the Office of Student Rights
• Chair Floyd asked the members to review the charges and indicate an area of greatest interest
• Chair Floyd also noted the future need to identify areas where an amendment to the student code of conduct may be required
• No additional new business

6. Meeting adjourned at 1:45 p.m. to reconvene on October 10, 2022.
